ERP DOCUMENT

Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) with a single unified database and by integrating different functions has helped our college to get a complete picture of different strata of management. Our college ERP system is an amalgamation of various modules. The modules are focused on academic planning and development, administration, finance and accounts, student admission, support and examination. Here is a brief overview of each module including Vruddhi software and Tax Tally software.

Academic Planning and Development

- Under the aegis of Maharashtra University of Health Sciences (MUHS) we are provided online synopsis, dissertation submission portals, which open during specific submission period decided by the university.
- Both undergraduate and post graduate syllabus set by DCI and MUHS of all subjects of all years is timely updated on MUHS website.
- EBSCO software provides access to variety of literature worldwide.

Vruddhi software

- Student module captures all the student related data;
 1. Student profile
 2. Attendance
 3. Library details.
- E-library provides easy access to various e-books and e-journals.

PRINCIPAL

SCIENCES & RESEARCH CENTRE, PUNE

Administration

- Two teacher databases are in play which are regularly updated with details of teaching staff namely;
 1. MUHS
 2. DCI
- Biometric attendance- The regular update of attendance of teaching, non-teaching staff and post graduate students is recorded by a dedicated machine for,
 1. DCI
 2. MUHS

Finance and accounts

- We have latest tax tally invoice software which helps in recording and tracking financial information, and making it available in the form of financial statements.
- The key function of finance module is record keeping, managing accounts receivables, payables, cash management and on-time generation of financial reports such balance sheet, profit and loss account, cash flow statements etc.

Student admission and support

- Dental Council of India (DCI) also provides a separate student database in which the college updates the student profiles regularly.
- Student module – There is official website of our college for students to update themselves about the upcoming events and CDE workshops.
- The MARCDSRC website also helps our students to know the latest syllabus of all years including post graduate and undergraduate curriculum.
- Along with this, our university has its own website which displays syllabus and course guideline for all years which is accessible to staff as well as students.

SCIENCES & RESEARCH CENTRE, PUNE

Examination

- MUHS has online portal for submission of;
 1. Internal Assessment marks
 2. University Practical and Viva marks
 3. University Theory marks
- All are under CCTV surveillance which helps to conduct theory and practical examination with transparency. This is made accessible to the university through shared IP address.
