Observations of the Committee

1. There were no serious cases of misconduct by students in the institute and no complaints were received in this regard. (NIL REPORT)
2. Regarding 'professional ethics' the Committee puts on record that all our teachers make sure that all students follow their training keeping in mind the ethical issues involved, such as doctor-patient confidentiality, doctor-patient cordiality, use of appropriate / statutory disclosures in regard to treatment and follow-up, use of approved equipment and techniques, and other precautions to safeguard patient health and care. All such issues related to 'professional ethics' are imbibed by students during the coursework.
3. Regarding the Code of Conduct for students, teaching and non-teaching staff, all conditions and rules, as stipulated by MUHS (Act 1998, modified 2016) are adhered to, and any breach of conduct is directly reported to and resolved by the Principal of the College.

Signed:
