Report of Shivrajyabhishek Din

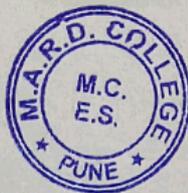

Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, a true son of the Maratha soil, was a great ruler of the Maratha Empire. He was crowned king of the Marathas on June 6, 1674, at Raigad fort in Maharashtra. The day is celebrated annually as 'Shivrajyabhishek Din', or 'Shivrajyabhishek Sohala', to mark the beginning of Shivaji Maharaj's journey to establish the Maratha Empire.

The college had organized a gathering at the statue of Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj near Golibar maidan. Dr Nikhil Diwan gave brief information about the significance of the day. Students paid respect by garlanding the statue. This was followed by the National Anthem and the Maharashtra geet.

Truly, Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj was a great ruler who made the Maratha empire establish its identity.
